Kisu KMS: Message to the Readers
- Support the author of the series you're currently reading by buying it once their available in your country. It's not limited to getting the manga but it can also be by purchasing the anime goods if it has one.

- Leaving a comment/feedback at our homepage, is a great way to motivate us, a lot. That's one of the most effetive way to get update faster, next to being actually a staff of Kisu KMS or being a donator.

Message to New Applicants:
Any translators who wants to join Kisu KMS basically can take any manga/-manhwa they would like as long it is (not yet translated, no group is working on it, or you can help with the series we have that is on a stalemate.). As long as you can pass our test by our evaluators. If the series doesn't get an interest from the other staff, PrionBlank will be your help on Redrawing/ Cleaning / Typesetting - he can still add more projects from his 45 Projects. - written by Loli Yuzuru

It's a gif - you can't view the whole scene if you're reading this chapter at a website that doesn't support gifs.

Enjoy this chapter nyaa~!

Fun Facts: Kisu KMS has more females staff that males despite the lack of shoujo series in their projects. Suprisingly, they're mostly translators.
